STOP PRESS

Following a series of detailed planning meetings – and in order to ensure that Sheffield Music City is the safest possible event, the Safety Advisory Group responsible for Devonshire Green have decided that the event inside Devonshire Green should be ticketed. Tickets will be available for collection from a kiosk on Devonshire Green from 10.30am on the Saturday and from 1pm on the Sunday. Given the very strong line ups on both days we would strongly urge you to get there early to avoid disappointment.

HIGHLIGHTS MIXED IN SHEFFIELD 2

Friday 24, 9pm-2am at The Washington & Saturday 25, 9pm -2am@ The Washington

To reflect the true unity festival vibe MIS have dug deep into Sheffield's electronic past and present to bring a selection of DJ's and artists to town. These include Run Hide Survive, UMSD, Squire of Gothos, Tommy Vicari Jnr, Rogue State and more. Not only that, but there will also be live graff/art in the courtyard from Sheffield's own Mikk Murray, Lord Bunn, Geo Law, T Rex + others.

SLUMDOG MILLIONAIRE DANCE

Saturday July 25. 4pm at Barkers Pool.

There will be loads going on at the Music Village including a chance to pick up some African crafts or try some drumming. Then there's the CAN creative craft tent; poetry and rap in the OPUS tent, a SWAMP circus skills space and brilliant breakdancing, courtesy of Activities Sheffield. It all gets very exciting around 4pm with a mass version of the Slumdog Millionaire dance, where we show the world that Sheffield's got talent.
